Plaintiffs response to court Directive
RE: (Taio Cruz Timely Service)

Plaintiff,

Bruce Lykes

[ADDRESS Confidential] 5288 Branchy Oaks Ln
Columbus OH 43220

[Enclosure]

The plaintiff to date (3/11/2013) has not received any mailed instructions or material in relation to Service of suit to a defendant in another country, from the marshal's office. The plaintiff happened to be calling the clerk of courts office (via phone) a number of weeks after he had given the court what (according to his information or information presented to him) were legal representative addresses for the defendants, for a status update on service of the defendants, when he was first informed the marshal's office does not serve to other counties; and the marshals office would provide/send service instructions for this.

The plaintiff then looked into web based information himself on how to proceed with suit service of a defendant in another country.(as he never received instructions from the marshals office)

Thus according to the plaintiffs information of proper procedure ;he then PROMPTLY mailed(according to his knowledge) the proper Forms , copies of original suit complaint/papers and cd s submitted to the court (and duplicate of such) to: The Royal Courts of Justice,London , (Forwarding Authority) on 2/27/2013 (For Post office record/address mailed ; see attachment)

Thus plaintiff motions(requests) Taio Cruz not be dismissed from the court suit.

Sincerely,

Bruce Lykes
(Plaintiff)
